

Dedicated to Ms. Repp

We can't think of someone who cares more about the students in our building than Ms. Christina Repp. Everyone in the building relies on her empathy, kindness and knowledge. Ms. Repp first started in 2001 as a Student Assistance Counselor and within a couple of years became the school Social Worker. She has helped countless students, families and staff between the three buildings, although most of her years have been spent in the high school. Her students look to her for compassion and, most importantly, guidance. Not a day goes by without someone either in her office or knocking on her door, looking for assistance in some fashion, or even just for a piece of candy to help get them through their day. She is always there for her students, and sees them through their hardest times. On any given day you can also find her leading a SADD club event, assisting teachers with their classes, or meeting with parent groups trying to help instill and reiterate good choices for our student body. Ms. Repp is an integral part of the school community. We value her friendship and look forward to seeing her smiling face every day.

Debbie Thompson and Melissa Shandroff

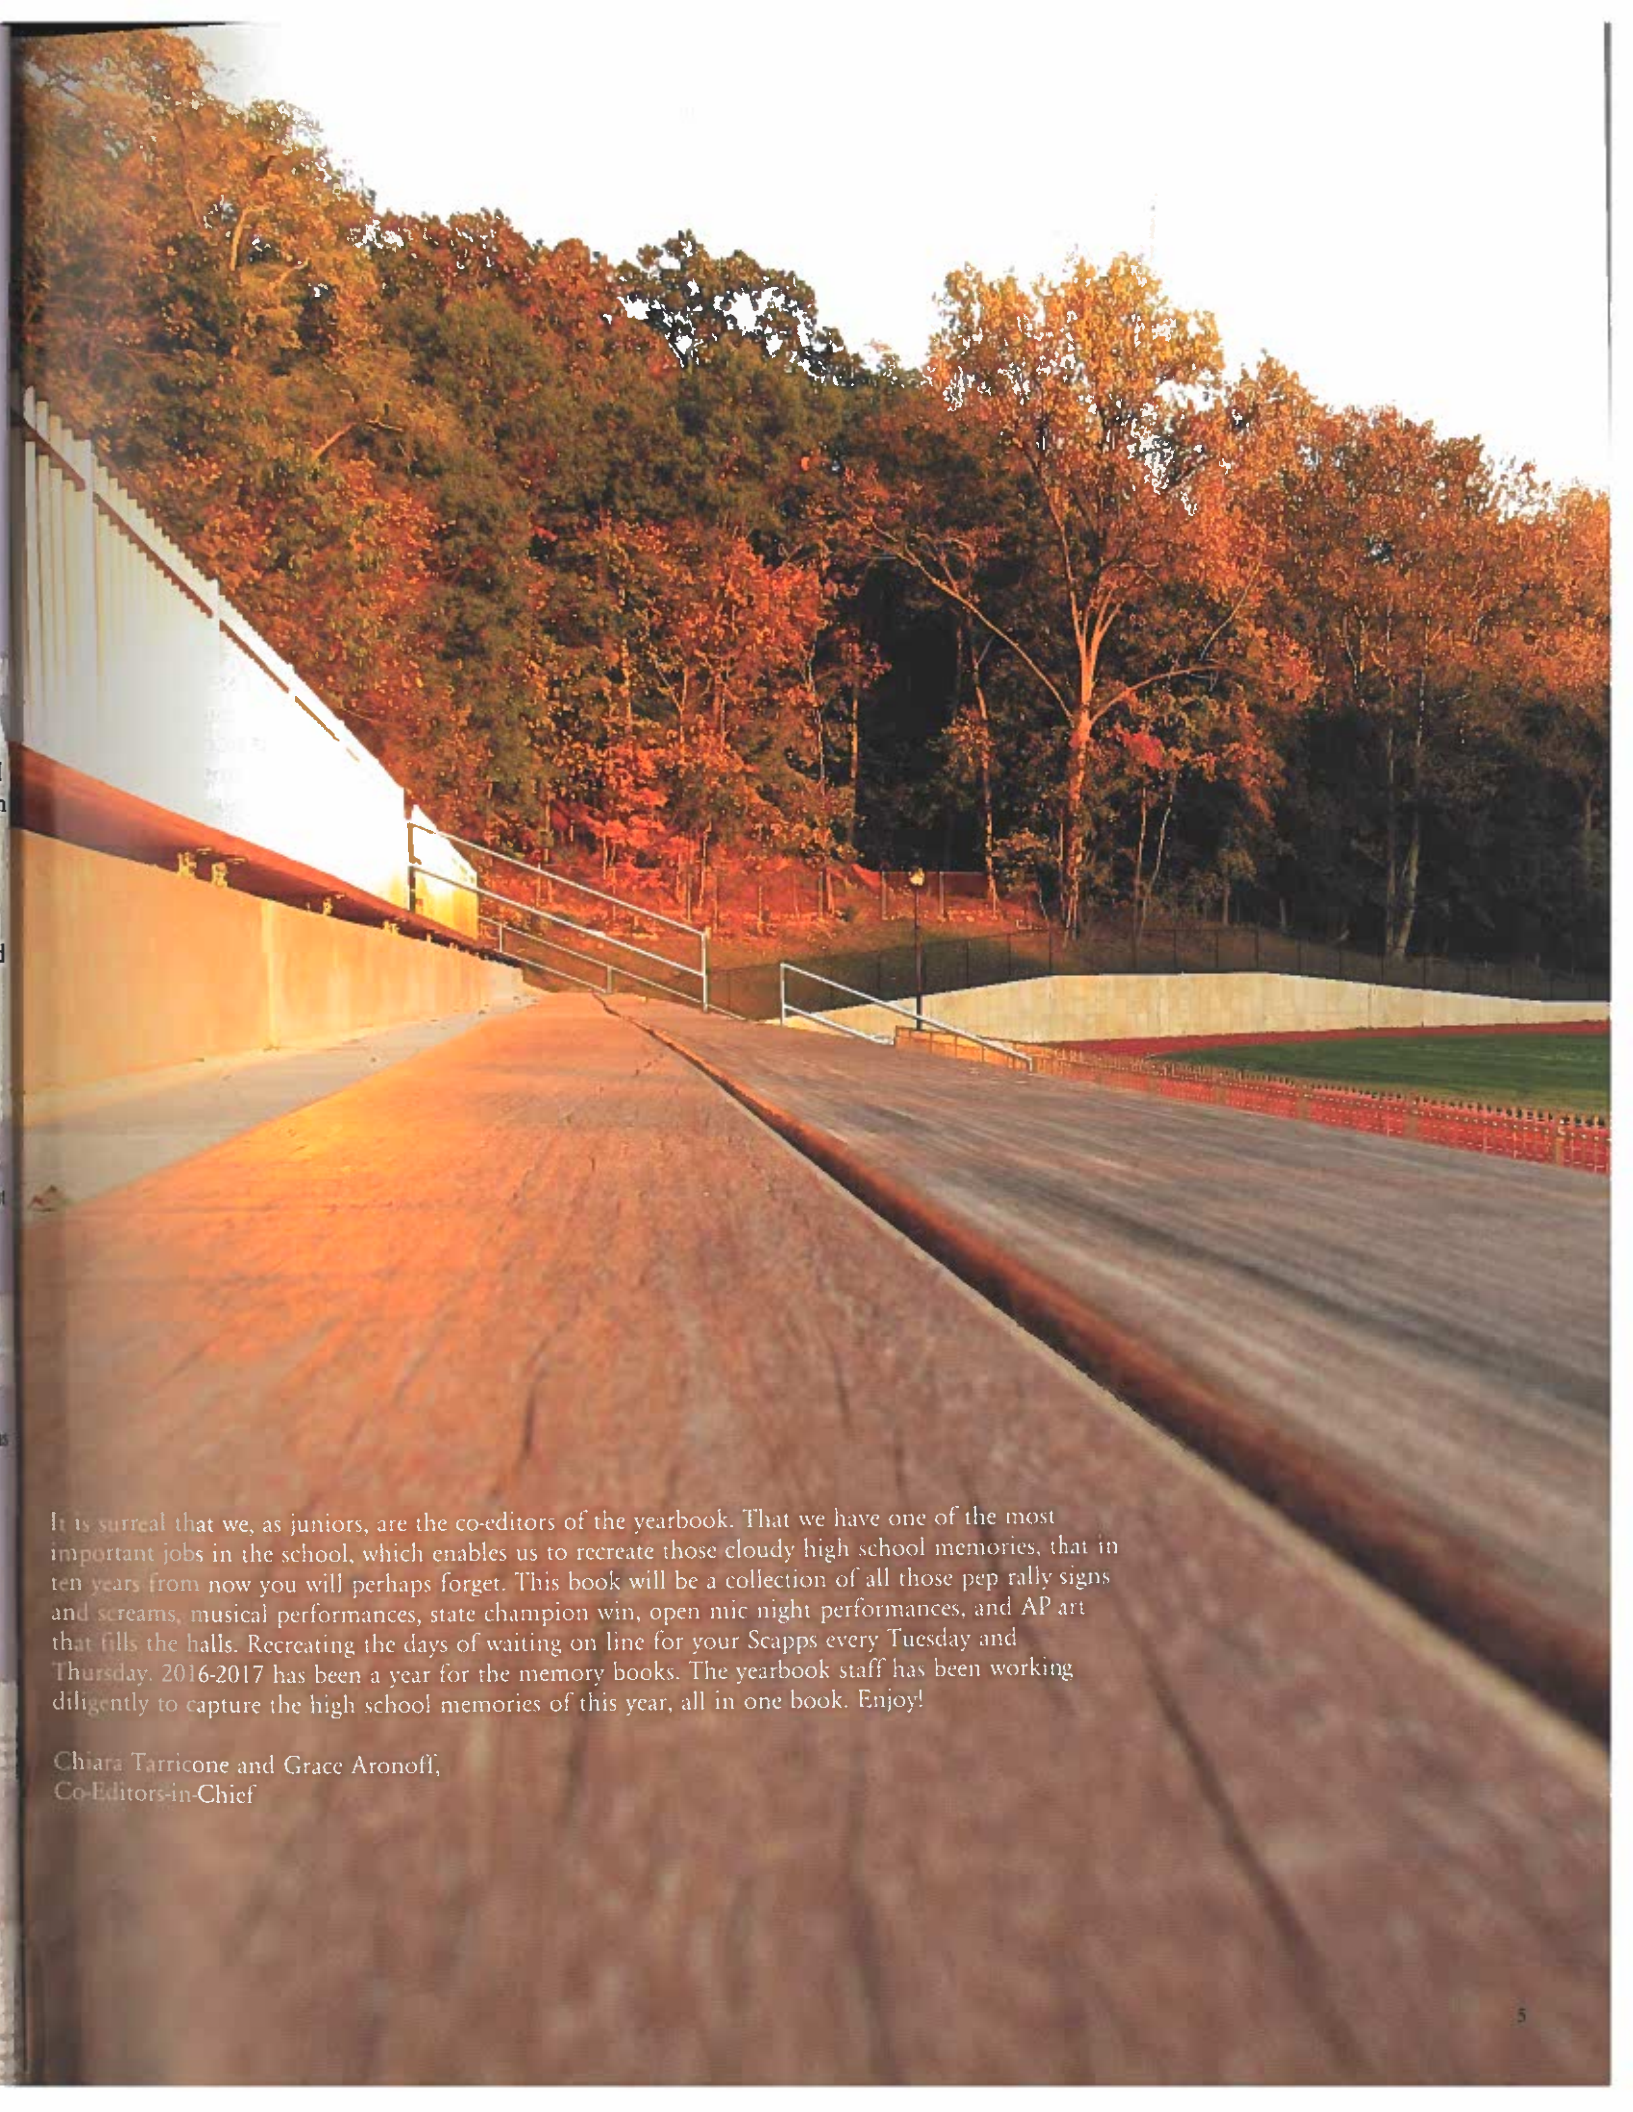

We are not really sure how got here, but here we are with our very own page in the yearbook. This has been a super memorable year, from the school dances, to the delicious cookies in the cafeteria. I think our presidency can be encapsulated with a story: It all started in the gym locker rooms, after a heated game of ultimate frisbee, in which our leadership skills were put to the test. Our disc team, down by 5 touchdowns, came roaring back to disc our way to the W. The fire that we set under our frisbee team gave them the passion and will that it took to fight through the adversity that we were up against. After retreating back to the locker room, we could smell the success in the air, perhaps even more than the smell of body odor. That's how we knew.

We have a few shout outs that we must give out- These are people who guided us on our journey to the most prestigious position in the lower Hudson Valley. First of all we got Shrimp Scampi, for making the world smile with his comical shenanigans in the morning. Og squad of course, because we wouldn't be here without the boyz. Neal "Doc" Rosengren, for being a father figure throughout our Hastings experience. And lastly, Ms. Gags, Ms. Cocucci, and the whole office gang for welcoming us with open arms into the main office community.

To our fellow seniors- good luck in whatever endeavours you will embark on in the coming years, make sure to stay in touch. We hope we have made a positive mark on HHS and the grade below us doesn't ruin everything.

Love you all,
Nate and Elijah
SU President and Vice-President

It is surreal that we, as juniors, are the co-editors of the yearbook. That we have one of the most important jobs in the school, which enables us to recreate those cloudy high school memories, that in ten years from now you will perhaps forget. This book will be a collection of all those pep rally signs and screams, musical performances, state champion win, open mic night performances, and AP art that fills the halls. Recreating the days of waiting on line for your Scapps every Tuesday and Thursday. 2016-2017 has been a year for the memory books. The yearbook staff has been working diligently to capture the high school memories of this year, all in one book. Enjoy!

Timothy J. Rosa, Sales Manager

It's been a long road, but here we are at the end of it. This was only my second attempt at being Yearbook advisor, and just my first attempt at having a full-year design class dedicated to it. There were mistakes made along the way and more than a fair share of conflict resolution (I'm looking at you senior superlatives, football team photo), but at the end of the day we made a good book. A good book that will freeze this school year in a time capsule between two hard covers. All the happy moments, memories, friendly clubs, theatrical performances, musical concerts, state championships, school dances, sports teams, and more were poured into this book.

I cannot thank my team enough for all of the blood, sweat, tears they put into this project. There is not enough popcorn or animal crackers in the world to thank you all. For the vast majority of you reading this who were not on the Yearbook team this year, keep this in mind: putting together a 160-page book that pays homage to an entire year's worth of experiences for every student in the high school is a daunting and intimidating task. Each page was carefully put together by one of your peers; measuring picas, cropping photos, editing text, choosing fonts, downloading and uploading and tagging images. We had a lot of fun, but it was also a lot of hard work.

So to Chiara, Grace, Aniya, Aleksandra, Caroline, Samantha, Emily, Leah, Simi (and sometimes Gaby): thanks.

I would also like to thank all of the faculty and staff for being accommodating with student photographers and faculty portraits. Thanks to Mrs. Gagliardi for being my co-advisor and handling all of the "money stuff". Thank you to all the parents who helped put together the senior baby pictures. Thanks to all of the outside photographers who helped us get this book's pages filled with stunning photographs. Thank you to Mr. Adipietro for volunteering me for this project two years ago and, along with Dr. Montesano and Mr. Luft, encouraging me to propose a design class to take care of the yearbook. Thank you to the Mrs. Bassmann and the rest of the Athletic Department for helping me with sports teams and schedules.

I hope you enjoyed the book. I'm happy with it, and I'm happy it's done.

Mr. Merchant
