Dedicated to the Merchant brothers...

Jesse Merchant (Athletic Director) and Cory Merchant* (Art Teacher)

"He's my brother. He's cool. I'm cooler, though."
- Mr. Merchant

"We have always been close. He was my best man when I got married, and I was his. We have had a lifetime of laughs, amazing experiences, and unforgettable memories. Our life's journeys have mirrored each other uncannily. We've married the women we love, had children and started families of our own. It's all been leading up to this moment, the single best moment in either of our lives: having a yearbook dedicated to us."
- Mr. Merchant

* Dedications are chosen by the Editor. Mr. Merchant had nothing to do with this.

Good day Hastings, these are your co-presidents, Jude and Kojo speaking. Thank you again for giving us the honor of representing this community. We hope we've done the position justice. HHS is unique and we are proud to have represented a school of incredibly motivated and joyful people.

It's been a long year. Fire alarms have been pulled for a TikTok, Mr. Conwisar was hit with a snowball, a picture of Mr. Ralston wearing a kilt earned 1,000 likes on Instagram, and luckily no one was bitten by a coyote. While we didn't bring back dances, we apologize for Kojo's absence during the announcements. Star soccer player Jude Joerger also apologizes for not bringing home a section championship.

Despite waking up for early SU meetings, we have enjoyed being greeted by Ms. Porter and Ms. Gagliardi, who guaranteed our announcements were ready to be spoken every morning and sent us off with the positive energy they always held. We also thank Mr. A, who would watch over us and ensure that we would be serious; however, we couldn't help the occasional "Happy Birthday" to teachers randomly.

It would be unprofessional for us to refrain from granting a couple shoutouts. Shoutout JGT, big man Jose, shoutout bigger man Sean Leyden and Amaan "hottie" Rai, shoutout Mr. McCann's hiking unit, and most important of all, shoutout Jeff "the tank" Conwisar. Never stop your backpack collection.

As Hastings High School proceeds without the Class of 2020, we sincerely wish you the best of luck because you're gonna need it. Don't let traditions die without us. You don't need natureboy to make a fire. Last of all, never forget to keep it local.

#ShengJoerger2020

Co-Presidents
Jude Joerger and Kojo Sheng

The yearbook staff and I worked relentlessly to formulate ideas, capture moments and design pages with nothing less than perfection. This year, I made it my intention to make this a book that contains present and past moments; A book that will forever serve as a place to reminisce on the time at Hastings. Along with continuing past traditions, we decided to start some of our own. As a result, we have new pages that make the yearbook even more remarkable.

I have been in Hastings my entire life and went through all three schools. Each year, we stepped closer to this monumental moment. The moment that we thought would never come but ended up sneaking-up on us. I wanted to make this yearbook extra special for the Seniors. Before we leave, I wanted to exhaust every idea that will fill the books with moments of our last years at Hastings.

Throughout the year, the staff and I have gone through stress and numerous setbacks. We tackled obstacles to make this book the best version it could be. We hope you enjoy all the memories we've fused together to formulate this distinguished book.

Project

SHARE

Jude Joerger

"I think Project Share is great because it gives an opportunity for highschoolers to understand the world outside of the small town of Hastings. Kids are able to experience new things by helping people that might not have as much as they do."

"Never doubt that a small group of citizens can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has."
~Margaret Mead

"Project Share went very well this year; over 650 people came to attend the dinner with over 300 volunteers. This year was the 30th anniversary which was very special. We raised more money than ever before."

"What really stood out to me this year was the community of both volunteers and guests that attended the dinner. The interactions; everyone is extremely joyful and are happy to take time out of their night to be apart of the project. I saw a new side to the people that I see everyday in school."

The yearbook advisors wanted to take some time out to apologize to the athletes, coaches, and parents of athletes of all the Spring sports teams. Because of the extenuating circumstances surrounding a turbulent February, March, and April, their inclusion in this year's book became an impossibility. We tried to make the best book possible under the circumstances, and we hope you enjoy it. Thanks for understanding.
